

Lateral move sprinkler at NWREC.

Photo by Freddie Lamm

KSU NORTHWEST RESEARCH-EXTENSION CENTER
PO BOX 505
COLBY KS 67701-0505

2016 Fall Field Day Just Add Water: Irrigation Science Today

Northwest Research-Extension Center
Colby, Kansas

TUESDAY, AUGUST 23rd
Registration 8:30 am CDT

Registration and inside seminars will be held at the American Legion, 1850 W. 4th in Colby. Please go directly to the American Legion for registration. Trailers to the field will depart at 9:00 AM.

8:30 – 9:00 AM Registration

Field Tours and Indoor Seminars 9:00 AM to around noon

Drought-tolerant corn hybrids and timing of water deficits

-- Rob Aiken

Managing irrigation of modern corn hybrids under institutional constraints

-- Freddie Lamm

Soil water sensors: lessons from the field

-- Jonathan Aguilar

Ear feeding pests on corn: is resistance on the horizon?

-- Sarah Zukoff

Nitrogen and phosphorus management for irrigated corn: sustainability and profit

-- Lucas Haag

Mobile drip irrigation: hybrid hardware for hybrid corn

-- Isaya Kisekka

ET-based irrigation scheduling

-- Dan Rogers

Complimentary lunch served after the program, sponsored in part by the Kansas Corn Commission

K-State Research and Extension is an equal opportunity provider and employer. Call 785-462-6281 if you require special accommodations.